CLUE VI

In amongst the ruins, near the tennis courts, look high for the metal angels; who's chapel are they watching over?
ST. _ _ _ERT'S CHAPEL.
THE THIRD LETTER IS THE _ LETTER OF THE APLHABET.

answer

CLUE IV

Be brave! Find the grave of Waterloo hero William Middleditch, near the Court House, a man that would have put us in our place. He passed 13th November 183_

CLUE II

At the Guildhall you'll need eagle-eyes to count how many birds are above the door. _

Guildhall

Cathedral and Norman Tower

Abbeygate

CLUE VII

Find the Abbeygate side door, find the stone skull! To the left is a window; how many stone angels are under it? __

CLUE III

Tricky one, in our day Letitia Rookes owned the rickety 'Widow's Coffee Shop' between the Norman Tower and Cathedral. See if you can find the date of her death on a plaque nearby... 178_

What you need to do...

1. Cut out the hole and discard.

2. Find this shape in the Abbey Ruins by perfectly lining it up with the hole in the paper.
Yes we've watched too much 'Goonies' – ask an adult.

3. Once in perfect line you'll be standing near the clue's answer… look down to the ground

Let our very own Rusty Rattlebones guide you through some of the history you've found on the town treasure hunt…

Clue I

Gibbet Cages were most often used for traitors, murderers, highwaymen, PIRATES, and sheep stealers; they were meant to discourage others from committing similar offences.

Clue II

Did you know the men of the Guildhall were responsible for the disposal of plague victims bodies within the town.

Clue III

The Abbey precinct wall would have originally closed the gap between the Tower and St James's. (Cathedral)
In the 18th century the Widow's Coffee Shop stood there, run by Mary and Letitia Rookes. It had a bad reputation, with some very naughty happenings occurring, but no evidence supports this idea.

Clue IV

William Middleditch fought at Waterloo; the decisive battle which marked the beginning of the end of Napoleon Bonaparte's reign and with it France's domination of Europe. Waterloo was 202 years ago…

Clue V

The body of Anglo-Saxon king Edmund was moved to this site in c903, and his shrine became a place of pilgrimage. The Abbey itself was founded in c1020 before its suppression in c1539.

Clue VI

Robert, a young boy from Bury, was allegedly murdered in 1181. Supposedly by the local Jewish community in a manner suspiciously similar to other killings attributed to Non-Christian groups; much like William of Norwich. Hmmm smells a bit fishy to me…!

Clue VII

There's a lot of myths about the stone skull, with some people believing it might even be real! The skull is included in a wall that was probably built in the Victorian period. The skull, and angels, would have been parts of gravestones reclaimed and recycled as building material.
