Suffolk Museums

Fascinating Facts
- Aldeburgh Museum is housed in the 16th century Meet Hall, where it moved to in 1955, which was continuously used as a meeting place for governing the local area since the Tudor period.
- Ipswich Transport Museum is one of the few museums to feature objects made or used in the town almost exclusively.
- Laxfield Museum is housed in the old guildhall, which has just reached its 500th anniversary since its construction.
- Mildenhall Museum is housed in the Lakenheath Warrior and his Horse – a rare Anglo-Saxon burial.
- Moyse’s Hall Museum has served as a bridgetown, inn, workhouse, gaol, police station and museum in its 900-year history.

Beautiful Buildings
Suffolk Museums are moot halls and mansions, castles and control towers, seaside cottages and country houses. Each is different and filled with the objects and stories that keep Suffolk’s rich heritage alive.

Captivating Collections
Whether you are interested in the natural world, maritime history, in transport, in art, in music or in aircraft, Suffolk Museums have collections to suit all ages and interests.

Passionate People
Suffolk Museums have a fantastic workforce made up of paid staff and volunteers who guarantee to make your visit a memorable one.

Access
Suffolk museums are committed to improving their access and ensuring equal experiences for all. Please visit suffolkmuseums.org for further details of access facilities.

Heritage Landscapes

Outstanding Outdoor Spaces
Front walled gardens, to country parks and meadowland, Suffolk Museums boast an impressive range of outdoor spaces for people of all ages to enjoy.

Website & Social Media
Visit suffolkmuseums.org for more information or follow us on:

- @suffolk_museums
- @AssociationforSuffolkMuseums

Find out more

SUFFOLK MUSEUMS

A Great Day Out!

Copyright the Association for Suffolk Museums 2020.
The Association for Suffolk Museums is an independent charity registered in England. All rights reserved.
Images courtesy of Suffolk Museums. Please recycle this leaflet after use.